

The 19th Capri Spring School on Transport in Nanostructures

Capri, April 06 - 13, 2025

Travel Information

You can get a fast boat to Capri from Naples' main harbor Molo Beverello. There are also some slower boats (car ferries) leaving Porta di Massa, which is 500m from Molo Beverello (see picture). Information about timetables can be found at the following link (<https://bit.ly/3EMsxCh>). Please note that the timetables usually change at the beginning of the spring season.

Arriving by plane: The company ANM runs a bus called Alibus, which leaves from a stop outside Terminal 1 every 20 minutes. The bus makes three stops, one at the central train station (Piazza Garibaldi), the second at Immacolatella/Porta di Massa, and the last at Molo Angioino/Beverello. The ride costs 5 euros, and the ticket can be bought on the bus. Taxis are also available (ride to Molo Beverello for about 21 euros); verify the price BEFORE boarding the car.

Arriving by train: Stazione Centrale (15 minutes from the Molo Beverello) is connected with the port by bus, tram, and metro.

Anacapri is one of the two main villages on the island of Capri (the other one is called “Capri”, as the whole island). The hotels where we are staying are located in Anacapri. You can consult the time table here (<https://www.capri.com/en/bus-schedule>). To reach them, you can choose one of these ways:

1. From Marina Grande (the port where the boat leaves you), take the direct bus to Anacapri (runs on average every hour; cost=2,40 €; it takes 15 min.). Tell the driver the name of your hotel.
2. At Marina Grande (the port where the boat leaves you) buy at the ticket desk a ticket for the “Funicolare”= cable car to Capri village (runs every 15 min.; it takes 3 min., 2,40€); then, from Capri take the bus to Anacapri (runs every 10 minutes; it takes 15 min.). You need a second ticket for this ride. Tell the driver the name of your hotel.
3. From Marina Grande (the port where the boat leaves you), take a taxi (it costs about 25-30 Euros; it takes 15 min.; verify the price before boarding the taxi).

The Harbour of Naples

